Regulations for the Establishment of Scholarships and Financial Aid for Overseas Chinese Students at Taipei City University of Science and Technology

Approved at the 1st Scholarship Committee Meeting of the 1st Semester, Academic Year 2025, on August 11, 2025.

1. These regulations are established to encourage outstanding overseas Chinese students to enroll at Taipei City University of Science and Technology, assist them with living in Taiwan, and further enhance the University's international outlook.
2. The term "overseas Chinese student" referred to in these regulations means a student who applies for admission to the undergraduate program of the University in accordance with the University's admission guidelines for overseas Chinese students.
3. Scholarship categories and application requirements:

(1) Study and Service Financial Aid

- Maximum subsidy amount: NTD 7,000 per person.
- Maximum quota: 5 students per semester.
- The total number of absences from the previous semester, including unexcused absences, personal leave, and sick leave, must not exceed 25 class periods. However, leave due to serious illness or accidents is not subject to this restriction.
- After approval, recipients must complete 35 hours of learning service during the semester. If the required hours are not completed within the semester, the scholarship will not be granted.

(2) Outstanding TOCFL Scholarship

- Undergraduate students who have completed registration for the current semester may apply by submitting:
 - a. The certificate of the highest level passed in the Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language (TOCFL) during the previous semester; and
 - b. Proof of attendance records from the previous semester, including unexcused absences, personal leave, and sick leave.
- Each level may only be applied for once. Students who have already received a scholarship for a certain level may only apply for a scholarship for a higher level in the future.
- Scholarship amounts are as follows:
 1. First-year students: Students who obtain a B1, B2, C1, or C2 certificate will receive NTD 2,000 per person.
 2. Second- to fourth-year students: Students who obtain a B2, C1, or C2 certificate will receive NTD 2,000 per person.

4. Overseas Chinese students who meet the application requirements must prepare all required documents after registration and submit their applications to the Office of International Affairs. The Office of International Affairs will compile the applications and submit them to the Scholarship Committee for review.
5. Scholarships are granted once per semester and are limited to a maximum of four years for undergraduate studies. Students with extended study periods are not eligible.
6. The number of scholarship recipients and the review procedures shall be implemented in accordance with the approved budget and actual circumstances.
7. These regulations shall be implemented after being reviewed and approved by the Scholarship Committee and ratified by the President of the University. The same procedure shall apply to any amendments.
